

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Thank you. Are we on the substitute to the substitute now?

SPEAKER NICHOL: Yes.

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Thank you. You will recall, when we left off this discussion the other day, that I had proposed that we offer an amendment which would allow the Governor to appoint six people and the Exec Board to appoint six people as well. Since that time, Senator Conway and I and others have sat down and we would also like to offer an amendment to Section 2. But I understand that that one is going to be a little bit...is going to generate a little bit more debate. So I would like to separate the question and talk about the first part, which we had agreed on I think, or pretty much. There seemed to be interest in considering this proposal the other day. So I would ask to divide the question at this time.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Landis.

SENATOR LANDIS: I'm sorry. Does this appear in the Journal, Mr. Speaker, so I can just take a look at each individual section?

SPEAKER NICHOL: No, it doesn't.

SENATOR LANDIS: Okay, oh, I see, okay. Section 1 is the one that goes from six persons...in that case, let me comment on Section 1, but renew my light for the other sections, and that is simply to say I find it acceptable to go to six gubernatorial appointments, six Executive Board appointments.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Barrett, please.

SENATOR BARRETT: Thank you, Mr. President and members. Just a comment in support of this substitute motion. There seems to be...there seemed to be some consensus last week, when we left this issue. I think there is common agreement now, six persons to be appointed by the Governor, six persons to be appointed by the Exec Committee. I would urge the Legislature to support the amendment.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Senator Rupp, please. Senator DeCamp,
